

Improving Collections by Stopping Fraud Before It Happens

Check and ACH payments remain the most cost effective way to process premiums unless they return. As mobile payments and other electronic options provide convenience to customers, the risk of fraud to carriers increases substantially. Collection expenses, customer inconvenience and cash flow are all impacted when there's a problem with the payment from a bank account. This webinar will illustrate the latest trends in eliminating fraud and related collection expenses from this payment channel.

To view this webinar, click Link:

Link